Dear Friend,

I wanted to take Day 5 to tell you about a key component of casting a successful spell. It's something that I personally feel is one of the biggest reasons why some Witches (especially beginners) have problems getting their spells to work.

(By the way, as always, click here to download this lesson so you can send it to friends/loved ones if you feel it would help t hem)

It is also one of the most difficult parts of casting a spell. But once you "get it" you will notice a big change in how quickly and effectively your Magick begins to change things...

It is especially hard when you cast a spell to bring something into your life (whether it is being cast for Love, Friendship, Money, Attractiveness, etc.).

And here it is...

Whenever you cast ANY spell you MUST "let it go" after you are done with the casting.

Here is what I mean...

Let's say that you cast a spell to bring extra Money into your life (and by the way, I teach a section on Advanced Money Magick in Mastering The Magick of Witchcraft)...

You make sure your belief is strong by using the Day 1 "belief" ritual, and you make sure your Internal Sacred Space is strong... then you pay attention to setting up your External Sacred Space, Altar, and cast your Magick Circle...

Then you go through the steps to cast the Money spell, constantly believing - with full emotion - that your Magick will bring Money into your life (though it won't always be in the way that you are expecting)...

Once that spell is done, and you have said your final chant, and dismissed your guardians...the circle is open, the candles are out...

LET IT GO.

Don't think about it...don't wake up every morning "wondering" when the money is going to appear. Go about your life, and forget you even cast the spell.

You see, when you obsess and think about a spell that you cast, "wondering" when it's going to work (often times impatiently) - your thoughts are actually holding back the full energy you sent out in the spell.

Think of it this way... when you are casting the spell you are building up Magick energy in your circle, the moment you finish the last action for casting the spell - the Magick energy that has built up (fueled by your emotion, and your belief in the spell) will be sent out into the Universe (or the Cosmos as I like to call it). If you continue to think about the spell (even days after you cast it) you are pulling some of that energy back to you...and it can not be released to make the spell actually work!

I know it is difficult, but you just need to let it go - just believe that the money will come to you, and that is that. Never think about it again. And I am telling you now, the effects of being able to "let spells go" is absolutely amazing. I can't wait until you try it...

Letting a spell go with your utmost belief in the Magick is only one of the many "golden keys" to spell casting. The keys that many Witches never even realize are there. If you want to make sure you know about them all, so that your spells bring you the miracles that you desire – without "fizzeling" or "backfiring", you should know all the secrets to releasing Magick energies in my Home Academy – <http://www.masteringmagickwitchcraft.com>

I wish I could fit everything into this mini course, but the truth is – many of these things are so important, you need to see them... and that's what the Home Academy will do for you. It makes absolutely sure that there is no mistake, and that you tap into the full force of the powers you were born with...

For now, get ready to practice one of the keys "letting a spell go" along with our next spell during Day #6! Get ready for some fun!

Bright Blessings,

Rose Ariadne
